

WELCOME & ENROLLMENT COMMITTEE

The Welcome & Enrollment Committee assists parents of incoming students to perform the following:

- Provide information to allow the parents to determine if the Warren-Prescott School would be a good fit for their child. This is accomplished by the following:
 - Coordinating Open Houses at the school and at the home of parents
 - Providing information to the parents about the school day
 - Providing information to the parents about the school culture
 - Being available to give tours during the “School Preview Times”
 - Being available to answer specific questions of any parent
- Maintaining the WPWELCOME@GMAIL.COM website to answer questions
- Educate them about the process of registration through BPS
- Once they have received assignment of the Warren-Prescott through BPS, assisting with any issues related to the wait list
- Once they have received assignment of the Warren-Prescott through BPS, coordinating events to meet the other students such as a “Walk to School” during June
- Once they have received assignment of the Warren-Prescott through BPS, coordinating events to meet the other students such as a “Pizza Party at WP” in August
